Shrove Tuesday

Pancakes will be a dessert option for school dinners on Tuesday 5th March.

Traditionally, Pancakes are associated with the day preceding Lent, because they are a way to use up rich foods such as eggs, milk, and sugar, before the fasting season of the 40 days of Lent.

Ash Wednesday

Next Wednesday, 6th March, is ASH WEDNESDAY. As in previous years, Father David, Father Philip and Mrs Lord will be in school to offer to Ash each of our young people, marking a cross on their foreheads, to mark the beginning of Lent.

World Book Day

World Book Day is on Thursday 7th March and the children will be invited to dress up as their favourite book character. Miss Horsfall has launched a World Book Day competition. The children are invited to make a story in a jar (see pictures below). There will be prizes to win and the winners will be announced in Friday's assembly on the 8th March. Entries should be sent into school on or before World Book Day. Entries will be displayed in the school library.

Pupil Medical and Information Forms

Thank you for your continued support in completing and sending back these forms with your child's most up-to-date information. Blank forms are available in the office if you didn't get one.

Red Nose Day

For Red Nose Day on Friday 15th March, children can wear red.

Also, we are running a bake sale!

Bring in cakes on the day and children can buy them throughout the day.

Year 4 Bankfield Trip

Here are some pictures from the Year 4 trip to Bankfield Museum where we met up with our linking school, Mount Pellon. The children had a lovely time making new friends, we are looking forward to seeing them again soon.

School Dinners for Parents is back!

Starting from next Wednesday, we are inviting parents/carers of different classes to have a school dinner with their child.

We can only offer one parent/carer for each child.

Next week (Wednesday 6th March) we start with Class 3 who are sending out their invitation letters soon. Come and see how delicious our school dinners are and join your child for a meal!
